2017 RSW

Shiraz

The Wine Front, Campbell Mattinson - NOVEMBER 2020

93 POINTS

"Bitumen, beefstock, coffee grounds, malt, vanilla custard and deep pools of plum. Both rugged and svelte at once. Licorice through the aftertaste; warm licorice. Tannin that ripples as it builds. It feels surly right now. Its arms are powerful but folded. Wait."

Wine Spectator - APR 2020

92 POINTS

"Dense, concentrated and toothsome, featuring cassis and dark chocolate flavors at the forefront, accented by details of Earl Grey tea, sandalwood and toffee. Complex and focused, with a long, expressive finish."

James Halliday 2020 Wine Companion - AUG 2019

96 POINTS

"This classic wine has many things going for it, no questions or doubts. It is crafted from blocks spread across the region, French oak one constant pulling the pieces together. The briefest encounter with the bouquet proclaims the quality of the wine to follow. It's elegant, long and balanced."

JamesSuckling.com, Nick Stock - AUG 2019

94 POINTS

"This has a very sleek, polished and nicely ripened set of aromas that sit in the raspberry and red-plum spectrum. There's a smooth build of tannin and a fleshy red and dark-berry core here. The depth and seamlessness are both impressive. Drink or hold."
